COMMITTEE ISSUES ORDER OF PARADE

First Official Announcement of Inauguration Pageant Details Made Public.

COMPLETE PROGRAM OUT

Information Available for Guidance of Crowds Watching Marchers.

The first official announcement of the complete program for the inaugural parade was made today by Col. Robert N. Harper, chairman of the general committee, coincident with the issue of the official souvenir book.

An innovation in point of art and contents characterizes the souvenir In addition to containing an extensive biography of President Wilson, the booklet has excerpts from the President's addresses relating to "Americanism," "Genuine Democracy," "Federal Reserve," "Rural Credits," "Workmen's Compensation," "Preparedness," "Child Labor," "Rights of Neutrals," "Trade Commission" and

"Personal Message to Congress."
Other features of the booklet are a biography of Vice President Marshall, a history of the city of Wash-ington, information about the inau-guration and a complete list of the inaugural committees and the aub

PREPARING FOR CROWDS

River Steamers Will Bring Hun dreds to Inauguration.

Steamships companies running ves els from down-river points are preparing to handle the inauguration crowds. Statements this morning from executive officials of the Nor folk and Washington Steamboat Company and the Potomac and Chesapeake Steamship Company indicate there will be many visitors from lower Potomac and on the Chesapeake bay towns.

Officials state there will be no danger from overcrowding. Neither company has been forced to run spe-cial steamers to handle "overflow"

There will be a special steamer from Norfolk, however, on the Nor-folk and Washington line, which will arrive in Washington early Sunday morning, bringing 600 apprentices from the naval training school at Nor-folk. These men will be landed at the Navy Yard and will return the same day.

The Majestic, for Baltimore, will be held over Monday until 10 o'clock p. m.
The Mt. Vernon and Marshall Hall
Steamboat Company will run two boats a day to Mt. Vernon, beginning Tuesday, one leaving at 10 o'clock in the morning and the other at 2 p. m.

STATION IDLERS BARRED

Railway Terminal Officials Will Shut Out the Curious.

Washingtonians will not have the privilege of witnessing the incoming crowds at the Union Station after to-night. Beginning tomorrow morning, no one will be admitted to the station who has not either a card of identifi-cation or else intends buying a ticket and boarding a train. Heretofore, it is stated, Washington

Terminal officials have been in venienced by having to deal with great crowds of idlers preceding the inauguration. In order to alleviate these conditions, the new ruling will be put into effect tomorrow morning. "We don't know how it will work,"

"We don't know how it will work," said one official today, "but it certainly seems worth a trial.

"Officials will be stationed at the entrances, whose duty it will be to keep back, all other than bons fide travelers and those who show their presence to be legitimate."

ENTERTAIN VISITORS.

Inaugural visitors from Pennsylrania and Maine will be entertained omorrow night by the State associa tions of each commonwealth in the District. The programs will open with a reception to the visitors, fol-lowed by a musicale and brief speeches by representatives of the States now in Washington. The Pennsyl-vania Society will meet in Perpetual Building hall, 1101 E street northwest. The Maine visitors will be wel-comed at the Washington Club, Seventeenth and K streets northwest.

PROVIDES GUARD OF HONOR. A' feature of the inauguration parade will be a special guard of honor, comprising about seventy-five smployes of the Department of the Interior, costumed in continental uniforms. One man will be stationed at each column and pylon within the court of honor in compliment to the President. Secretary of the Interior ane made the suggestion for the feature. STANDS ALL ARE SAFE. Morris Hacker, inspector of buildngs, declared today that every public stand erected for the inaugural parade is absolutely safe. Several inquiries as to the condition of the stands at certain points have reached Club him and he has made a thorough inspection

"Our men have worked hard to see that all the stands are safe and you can take my word for it that there will be no collapses," said Inspecto as a harmless means of washing from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and toxins; thus cleanesing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canni before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will cost very little at the drug store, but is sufficient to demonstrate that just as soap and hot water cleaness, sweetens, and freshens the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the blood and internal organs. Those who are subject to constipation, billous attacks, acid stomach, rheumatic twinges, also those whose skin is sailow and complexion paillid, are assured that one week of inside-bathing will have them both looking and feeling better in every way.—Advt.
